Ford Achieves 40th Consecutive Year as America's Best-Selling Commercial Van Brand

DEARBORN, Mich., January 3, 2019 – Unmatched in the industry, Ford has become America's best-selling commercial van brand for the 40th consecutive year. Such a record speaks to the overwhelming popularity of Ford vans among the commercial buyers and fleets that keep America working, families who need a lot of seating and adventurers who prefer homes that have wheels.

From 1979 through 2018, Ford sold more than 7.1 million vans with powerhouse names like Econoline, E-series, Transit, and Transit Connect. Led by Ford Transit, America's best-selling full-size commercial van, and Ford Transit Connect, the best-selling small cargo van, Ford sold more commercial vans than any other brand last year.

When there's a job to be done, the best-selling commercial vans are Built Ford Tough.
